Talk Talk Talk

Martin Waddell
Mike Phillips

"I wish I had someone to talk to,"
said Bill.

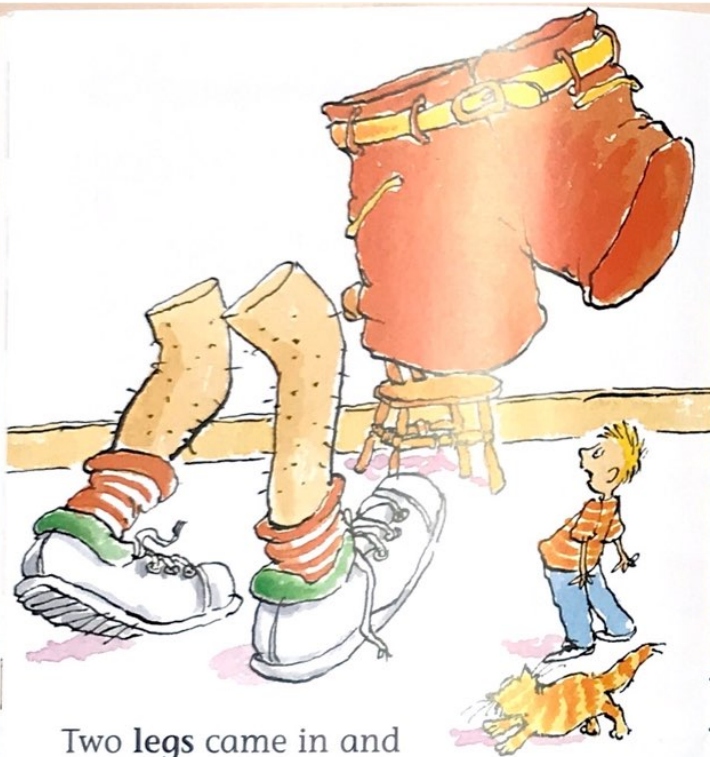

The door opened.

A giant bottom came in and sat down.

Two legs came in and joined on to the bottom, and then ...

... a tummy came in and sat down on the bottom.

A chest turned up to join the tummy,
and then ...

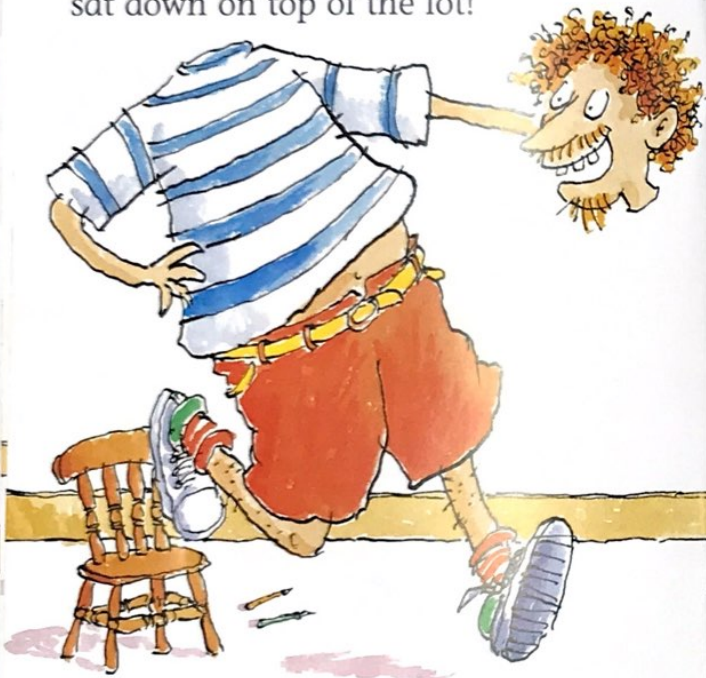

... in came two arms,
which fitted on to the chest.

Then a big head came in and sat down on top of the lot!

"Well, hello there!" said Bill.

After that, it was TALK TALK TALK TALK,
all day long.
